

NEW ITEMS AT LAKEWINDS, MARCH 2026

Grand Rose protein beverage

Grand Rose is a new, local company featuring sparkling water infused with plant protein. Each 12-ounce can contains 10 grams of vegan, pea-based protein and only 110 calories. The flavor is Citrus Yerba, a lightly carbonated juice with yerba mate and bright lemon notes. Crack a can before your workout for the creatine and protein benefits!

$5.99, $21.99 per 4-pack  LOCAL

Woodstock banana waters

When Woodstock banana water first arrived in stores, it caused a bit of a stir. Water from bananas?? But those who tried it were immediately taken with its light flavor and hydrating benefits. We've expanded our selection of these waters to include more flavors. So the next time you're looking for a refreshing juice, try a blueberry, chocolate, or strawberry flavored banana water from Woodstock!

Drench salad dressings

Drench dressings are dairy-free, kosher, gluten-free, and use no seed oils. In fact, the list of ingredients is so short it's on the front of the label! Try their vegan Caesar, which uses vegan Worcestershire sauce instead of anchovy, or sesame ginger vinaigrette, featuring coconut aminos, orange juice, and honey. Also available in Mediterranean lemon and citrus honey vinaigrette flavors.

$7.99

MNmlst salad dressings

Speaking of new salad dressing brands – try out MNmlst's minimally processed dressings. These salad sauces use high-quality oil and clean ingredients prepared in Texas and packaged in recyclable glass jars. So if you're looking to shake up your salad or veggie dip routine, check out balsamic vinaigrette, Greek, Italian, or ranch dressings.
